The Amani Homeownership Initiative on TV: on Spectrum News on June 16

Spectrum News ran a detailed four minute TV segment about the Amani Homeownership Initiative this month. The story described how this initiative has been years in the making and talked about the powerful impact it will have in Amani. Spectrum News interviewed Britney Roberson, executive director of the Dominican Center, and Frank Martinez, deputy director of Community Development Alliance, in Amani for the story.

Celebrating the Dominican Center at Blu in downtown Milwaukee

On June 15 community members from across Milwaukee, including Alderman Russell Stamper and Dominican Center Board Chair Julia Wilson, gathered at the Pfister's Blu raise funds to support revitalization efforts in Amani, including housing, safety, and education initiatives.
